

Carole Estby Dagg is the author of THE YEAR WE WERE FAMOUS and SWEET HOME ALASKA. Before writing historical fiction, she worked as a children's librarian, Certified Public Accountant, and assistant library director. She writes in Everett, Washington and a converted woodshed on San Juan Island.

Please visit Carole's website at www.CaroleEstbyDagg.com